Friends of Scouting is the annual giving campaign to support the services, objectives, and operations of the Heart of Virginia Council for 2014.

Why give to Friends of Scouting?

Your contributions help provide camps, training, literature, the scout shop, professional and volunteer support, liability insurance for leaders, accident insurance for Scouts, and many other services. Your help through Friends of Scouting support is critical to Scouting in Central Virginia.

Who supports Scouting in Central Virginia?

Since 1913, the Heart of Virginia Council oversees the Scouting program in Central Virginia. The dedicated staff and volunteers of the council work to extend Scouting to all youth and support the leaders who conduct the program.

Who pays for Scouting?

The Heart of Virginia Council is supported by area United Ways, activity fees, the popcorn sale, some endowment money and Friends of Scouting. Friends of Scouting (FOS) make up more than 30% of the council's budget. Individuals, businesses and families now active in Scouting pledge their support of the Heart of Virginia Council's services through Friends of Scouting.
